Letter to your future self

Hello, Future Dinora! I always wonder, how are you doing? Also, I quite often think about what awaits for me in the future. I have a lot of questions I would like to ask you, but even if it was possible, I think it would make me much less excited for the future, so let me tell you about myself!

Right now, I'm sixteen and I'm in tenth-grade. Honestly, sometimes I regret about not leaving for college, because I have been struggling with my education, since I have zero interest in studying. One of the only things that I truly enjoy at the moment is English, because it's something actually fun for me and I'm proud of how much improvement I have made in learning it for the past few years. Also, in this year I've made some amazing friendships, with people who make my days much more exciting and fun, ~~I get on~~ so I hope that they are still with me in the future.

By the way, I have some questions I want you to ask yourself! I ~~think~~ believe that they will ~~make~~ <sup>tell</sup> you about my dreams and goals: <sup>Do</sup> Did you finally speak English fluently? Are you traveling the world? Did you find a job that you enjoy? Are you happy with your appearance? Did you learn a new language?

In conclusion, I want to say that I'm proud of the woman you became! I'm confident that you've been through a lot of things and still made mistakes and have your own flaws, but at the end of the day it's what makes us humans.

IV - Writing

Hi, future me. If you reading this letter, you probably live in 2028.
Do you find your dream job? Well, right now I'm thinking about it, it's too hard because I don't know who I want to be. I have a hobby - motion design. I want to be a motion designer in future, but I want it to not be my certain work. Maybe I should try freelance? I can try to speak to english speakers, taking their orders and done their videos as fast as I can? I remember when I opened After Effects for the first time, I was so disappointed cuz there were so <sup>much</sup> options that I need to learn! So I started slowly, I watched videos on YouTube and I got my first achievement! What is After Effects? After Effects is a program on PC, where you can animate everything what you want! It's <sup>so</sup> interesting! I hope you <sup>still</sup> using this program, and learned more things in this. Bye, and good luck in ~~you~~ your thing your dreams!
